Day 1

Read the Words
Pick the correct word from the list to finish the sentences.

know    read    could

I can __________ words.
It _________ be an elephant.
I __________ my phonics.
I can __________ paragraphs.
It __________ be a dolphin.
I __________ my alphabet.

Spell the Words
Spell the words in the sound boxes.

Phil

that this

Day 1, continued

Rabbit Word Strategy
Map and divide the words on the Rabbit Word Strategy map. Use the Rabbit Word Strategy checklist to help you.

Words: splendid, inspect

1. First, map the word in the white grid boxes. Then, find the vowels. Make the red dots.

2. Connect the dots with a line.

3. Label the vowels “V”.

4. Label the consonants between the vowels “C”.

5. See the VCCV pattern. Make a line between the consonants.

6. Make a loop under each syllable.

7. Read each syllable.

8. Blend the syllables to read the word.

Parent Signature _________________________________
Day 2

Read and Think
First, read the stanzas out loud with proper phrasing. Then answer each question in a complete sentence.

Phil said, “I can read!
Because I know my alphabet.
I know my letters from A to Z!”

Phil said, “I can read!
Because I know my phonics.
I know that the letter B is for ball and bat and bee...
And zipper and zigzag... Z, Z, Z!”

1. Who is the narrator of the poem? _______________ How do you know? ______________________
   ____________________________________________________________________________________

2. What is the evidence in the first stanza that Phil can read? _______________________________
   ____________________________________________________________________________________

3. What is the evidence in the second stanza that Phil can read? _____________________________
   ____________________________________________________________________________________
Day 2, continued

Connecting Spelling to Meaning
First, read each example from the poem. Next, find the word in bold in the example. Then, write the base word in the “base noun” column. After that, write the word sum. Finally, circle the pronunciation of the ending. Tell if it sounds like an s or a z.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Example from the book</th>
<th>Base noun</th>
<th>Word sum</th>
<th>Pronunciation of ending</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I know my letters...</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>/s/ /z/</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I could read you paragraphs on elephants and rockets, dolphins, and squids.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>/s/ /z/ /s/ /z/ /s/ /z/ /s/ /z/ /s/ /z/</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I can read big words...</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>/s/ /z/</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Parent Signature _________________________________
Read and Think

First, read the text out loud with proper phrasing. Underline the evidence for your answers in the text and write the number of the question the evidence answers next to your underlining.

Phil said, “I could read to you. Come over and sit.
I could read you paragraphs on elephants and rockets,
Dolphins and squids.
I could read to you just like this…”

Phil said, “I can read big words like fantastic and splendid,
I know that they are each words for ‘good.’
I know that itty-bitty is ‘little,’
and that to inspect is to ‘look.’

1. Find the phrase that has names of ocean animals.
2. Find the phrase that gives another word that means little.
3. Find the phrase that tells about a word that means to look closely at something.
Day 3, continued

Think and Write
What can you learn about reading from this poem? You can use more paper to write if you need to.

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________
Parent Signature