Connecting Spelling to Meaning

First, read each example from the poem. Next, find the word in bold in the example. Then, write the base word in the “base noun” column. After that, write the word sum. Finally, circle the pronunciation of the ending. Tell if it sounds like an s or a z. The first one is done for you.

Example from the poem	Base noun	Word sum	Pronunciation of ending
Frank honks his truck horn...	honk	honk + s → honks	Ⓢ /z/
Fred blinks ...			/s/ /z/
Frank winks ...			/s/ /z/

Read with Feeling

Read the poem with swoops on page 6. Think about the beat of the poem. Then read the whole poem out loud to someone.
