LI

We have been learning about the letter l. The letter l stands for the /l/ sound, which is the first sound in the word lock and the last sound in the word hill. Draw a picture of a lock or a hill.

A large, empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for the student to draw a picture of a lock or a hill.

Write the Letters

Write each of the letters as neatly as you can, as many times as you can, to fill up the line.

Read and Draw

Read the sentence and draw a picture for the sentence. Explain to someone what “at the tip top” means. Tell them about your illustration and how it matches what the sentence says.

An ant is at the tip top.

Mixed-Up Sentence

Unscramble the words and write the sentence. If you need help unscrambling, you can cut out the words and move them around.

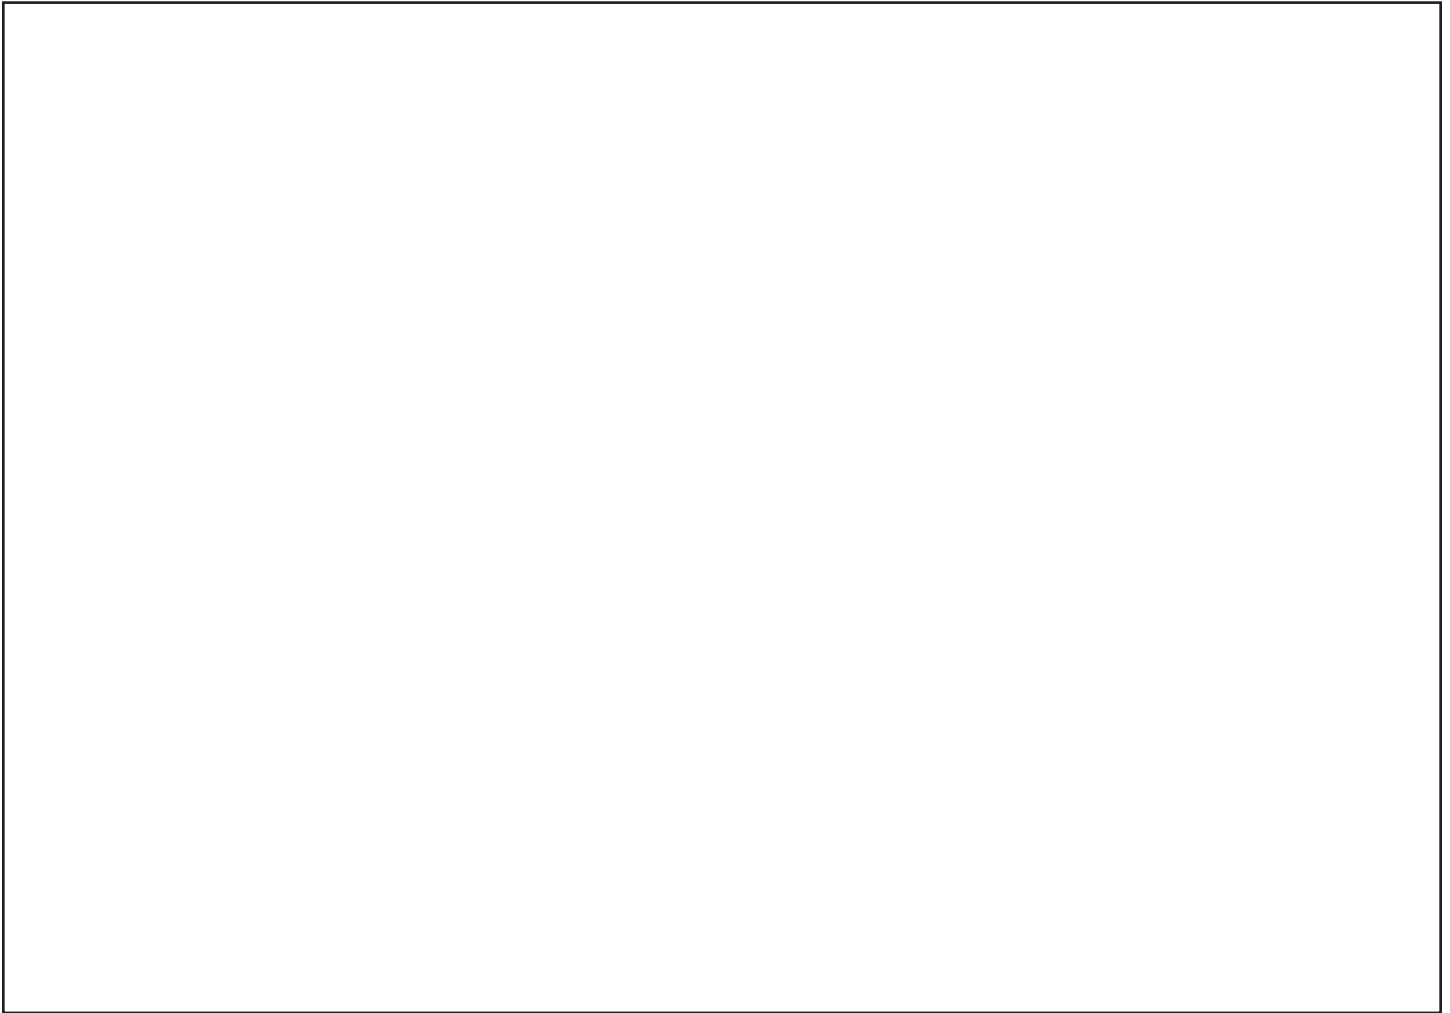

log. A on pig is a

Draw and Write

Draw a picture of some or all of the characters from the book On a Log when they fall. You can write the word "plop" in the illustration if you want to show the sound the animals made when they fell. Tell someone about what the characters did in the story.

Read Sentences

Read the sentences to someone with expression.

Can he go?

Yes, it is a rat on top!

Spell the Words

Spell the words in the sound boxes.
